People Who Write

on typewriters marvel that busy business men still cling to the pen process. The business man using a typewriter would not voluntarily return to the old method, because he can turn off more work, of a better quality, and with less effort on his machine.

The Man Who Never Used a Typewriter

believes the task of learning to write a difficult and hopeless one. Try Others have learned; you can. Your first attempt will probably reveal the fact that you do faster work with the pen. That's quite natural; you are just learning. Your next trial will surprise you. Your fingers go to the right keys instinctively. It becomes easier and you will then begin to realize the usefulness and benefit of a typewriter.

CHOICE OF A TYPEWRITER

will either make or mar your writing happiness. For the business man desiring a machine, that combines speed, durability, does perfect work, and lastly, has the easiest keyboard to learn, buy the

SEQUAH

WHEREAS, MR. L. BECKE of 54 Merchant Street, and well-known in Honolulu, did complain, before a large audience on Monday night last in the old Armory, on the corner of Beretania and Punchbowl Streets, that Rheumatism had been torturing him for the past 30 years, Mr. Becke stated that he had tried everything he knew of to obtain relief but all ended in failure, SEQUAH upon being applied to, immediately suggested that the Rheumatism had been in possession quite long enough, and proceeded to give it notice to quit by applying the SEQUAH OIL to the parts afflicted and in the presence of a number of gentlemen from the audience relieved the sufferer from his torture; and, WHEREAS, the said Mr. Becke, previous to the treatment, could not walk without the aid of a stout stick, is now to be seen about town as lively as a kitten, feeling as pleased as a dog with two tails. Others besides the above have received the same wonderful relief—and SEQUAH's fame is spreading far and near.

Cripples with Rheumatism are now pouring into the old Armory every evening, where SEQUAH lectures at 7:30. All invited. Seats provided. National Band in attendance. Admission free.

SEQUAH attends at the old Armory each day at 3 o'clock for sale of his Remedies and to receive persons who wish to undergo his treatment.

JUDICIARY JOTTINGS

Heinrich Luning's Will—Other Probate Matters.

Edw. H. F. Wolter petitions for probate of the will of the late Heinrich Luning, in which he is named as executor under $500 bond. The estate is valued at $1000, of which $800 is in a Honolulu leasehold, besides which property in Germany is mentioned, and $200 in personal property. It is all left to the widow during her life, for the support of herself and children. If she marry again, the property is to be given to the children forthwith. They are two sons of 15 and 12 years old.

Judge Cooper was engaged this forenoon in hearing argument in Edma M. Trousseau vs. Executors of Dr. Trousseau. Hartwell for plaintiff; Hatch and Carter & Kinney for defendants.

W. F. Allen, on behalf of the trustees named in the will of Wm. A. Aldrich, late of Piedmont, Cal., petitions for probate of said will. The testator died in 1892 and probate of the will here is for the purpose of administering on property in Honolulu, being a lot on Hotel street.

Argument on demurrer was heard this morning before Judge Whiting, in John Thomas Waterhouse, Henry and William Waterhouse vs. Mary Rice, W. W. Dimond and Henry Dimond. The Court took the matter under consideration. Hartwell for plaintiff; Carter & Kinney for W. W. Dimond; Hatch & H. Dimond. Mrs. Rice, having agreed to an amicable reference of the whole matter to the courts, is not participating with the other defendants in this controversy, which turns on the interpretation of the will of the late John Thomas Waterhouse.

Charles T. Rodgers petitions for probate of the will of his late wife, Sarah M. Rodgers. The estate is valued at $1650, being in savings bank deposits and Hawaiian Government bonds. The petitioner is left the entire estate, being named as the only devisee, legatee and executor, to serve as last-named without bonds. The will is a autograph one executed at Chicago on August 9, 1892, and witnessed by Ella C. P. Allingham and William H. Warren. The petition names, as heirs and next of kin: John S. Bowker, Victoria, B. C., and Charles L. Bowker, Thomasville, Georgia, brothers; Mary M. Crocker, Dorchester, Mass., sister, and Wm. H. Warren, Chicago, nephew.

DANCING ON THE GREEN.

Merry Men and Dainty Damsels Sport in the Moonlight

A vacant lot at Iwilei below the Oahu Prison is being utilized as a dancing turf by a number of young men and women. On Wednesday about eight couples went to the rendezvous with musical instruments and had a gay dance. Square dances especially were indulged in, one calling out the different figures. Toward nine o'clock residents came over and were interested on-lookers. Yesterday evening the performance was repeated under the bright moonlight. The revellers did not seem to mind the grassy floor, but had a good time till near 10 o'clock, their laughter ringing out in the quiet of the night.

LOUIS MORNINGSTAR.

The Boy Globe-Trotter Is Writing a Book on His Travels.

A. W. Bolster, of the Aloha Gallery, has received a letter from Louis Morningstar, the boy globe-trotter, who visited Honolulu some time ago. The boy is writing a book of his travels, entitled "Adventures of Louis Morningstar; or, Around the World Without a Cent." He asks that a photo of himself taken at the Gallery, besides a picture of the Volcano, be sent to him, as he wishes them to adorn the front pages of his book. Morningstar is in Alameda, Cal. He says he will pay Honolulu a visit in the near future.

Mechanics' Home, corner Hotel and Nuuanu streets, lodging by day, week or month. Terms: 25 and 50 cents per night; $1 and $1.25 per week.

Good-by, Thurston. Take keer o' yourself.—Chicago Times-Herald.
